Of Trouble No End...

Boris Pasternak's "Dr. Zhivago"

The death in Russia last Monday of Boris Pasternak, 70, coincided with my completing the reading of his Nobel-prize-winning novel "Dr. Zhivago."

Rather late reporting, you say, for a book that was acclaimed a year ago. But "Dr. Zhivago" is a book of 559 pages, and almost as many characters. And I am not one either to fool around with a condensed version or quit reading the original merely because I have lost track of which of the 559 characters is talking.

"Dr. Zhivago" is one of the world's eternal books — the Russian equivalent of our "Pilgrim's Progress" with a dash of Voltaire's "Candide."

I know of no better way to tell you what it is like than to print here some excerpts I jotted down on my journey through the book. This, on Page 296:

"That's just the point," said the doctor: "There are limits to everything. In all this time something definite should have been achieved. But it turns out that those who inspired the revolution aren't at home in anything except change and turmoil. They aren't happy with anything that's on less than a world scale. For them transitional periods, worlds in the making, are an end in themselves. They aren't trained for anything else, they don't know anything except that. And do you know why those never-ending preparations are so futile? It's because these men haven't any real capacities, they are incompetent. Man was born to live, not prepare for life."

I suspect the paragraph just quoted explains why the U.S.S.R. never permitted "Dr. Zhivago" to be printed or circulated in Russia, and why, after it had won the Nobel prize, Pasternak was compelled to give up the money and left to die alone and ailing in an obscure country place.

And another paragraph from the book: Page 404:

"It was then that untruth came down on our land of Russia. The main misfortune, the root of all the evil to come was the loss of confidence in the value of one's own opinion. People imagined that it was out of date to follow their own moral sense, that they must all sing in chorus, and live by other people's notions, notions that were being crammed down everybody's throat."

Again the doctor is speaking, on Paganism versus Christianity, in one of the book's greatest passages, Page 413. The doctor has remarked that the attention of the ancient world was riveted on mass miracles such as the Jews' safe passage through the parted waters of the Red Sea. And then the miracle of millions was forgotten for the miracle of one — the virgin birth of Christ. And the doctor says:

"What an enormously significant change! How did it come about that an individual human event, insignificant by ancient standards, was regarded as equal in significance to the migration of a whole people? ... Something in the world had changed, Rome was at an end. The reign of numbers was at an end. They were replaced by the doctrine of individuality and freedom."

And this final passage, Page 482:

"Dudorov's pious platitudes were in the spirit of the times. But it was precisely their conformism, their transparent sanctimoniousness, that exasperated Yuri Andreievich. Men who are not free, he thought, always idealize their bondage. So it was in the Middle Ages, and later the Jesuits exploited this human trait. Zhivago could not bear the political mysticism of the Soviet intelligentsia, though it was the very thing they regarded as their highest achievement."

Essentially "Dr. Zhivago" is the declaration of man's right to have a private world of his own apart from the world of politics and protected from the clutching hand of government — any government. Pasternak's words are for Russians but his meaning is for men of all nations.

Now you can understand why Comrade Khrushchev wrecked the Summit Conference. He had gone beyond the understanding of the world revolutionaries in Moscow — and he wrecked the Conference as the only way to get back in the graces of the boys back home.

Boris Pasternak is gone, but his book holds hope for the people with whom he lived and about whom he wrote. For Pasternak was a Russian and proud of it. And in time to come Russians will be proud of him.

Strategy Meet Arranged by SEATO Nations

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Western Big Three strategy meeting was arranged for late today following the second secret session of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter invited Britain's Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville to the private meeting.

The Western foreign affairs chiefs were expected to conduct a private post mortem on the summit conference collapse and scan the future for what the Communist might do over the next few months.

They are here for sessions of the SEATO Council of Ministers, which includes also the prime ministers of Australia and New Zealand and the foreign ministers of the Philippines, Thailand and Pakistan.

Both Lloyd and Herter were to address the council, completing a round of speechmaking, before the delegates got down to more concrete details in the four-day session.

Tuesday's speakers were said to have agreed in blaming Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev for the summit blowup. They spoke about the danger of a Red Chinese push now in places under SEATO's defense umbrella, such as the tiny kingdom of Laos in Southeast Asia.

The delegates were reported to accord that the Communist threat must not be fought by defense alone, but also through measures to improve the lives of the impoverished millions who comprise most of Asia's population.

The Philippines, Thailand and Pakistan were said to be interested in more economic help from the others. But Western officials gave no evidence of proposing a big step in aid.

Deliberations in Jewelry Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A Federal District Court jury resumes deliberations today in a $64,026 lawsuit filed by Louis E. Miller, a New York City jewelry salesman, against the Pine Bluff Hotel Co., operator of Hotel Pines.

Miller contends the hotel was at fault in the theft of two cases of jewelry stolen from the hotel Oct. 15, 1957.

The cases were taken from an unlocked room behind the registration desk. Miller claims they should have been locked up.

AEA Disputes NEA Report on Schools

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A state official says Arkansas shells out $216 per pupil for education, not the $191 reported by the National Education Assn.

Education Commissioner Arch Ford protested the NEA report, which ranked Arkansas 50th among states in per-pupil spending, in a letter to Research Director Sam M. Lambert in Washington.

Ford asked how the organization arrived at the figure. The commissioner said the $216 includes funds transferred at the state level for Teacher Retirement System benefits. The state regards this as a valid per-pupil expenditure, he added.

Without this money, Ford said, the per-pupil figure would be $205, an amount cited over the weekend by Frank Cannaday, statistical supervisor for the state agency.

Ford charged the NEA report "doesn't place all the states on a comparable basis." If the NEA doesn't reply, Ford said his department would refuse to cooperate with the organization in the future.

The NEA report listed Arkansas as the only state spending less than $200 per pupil for schooling.

Hope Group to Attend FFA Meet

The 33rd State Convention for the Arkansas Association, Future Farmers of America, will convene at Southern State College, Magnolia, June 2-4.

Delegates of the local chapter who plan to attend include Kenny Ridgill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ridgill, and Eddie Fry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fry.

The convention will be attended by delegates from each of the 279 chapters in the State.

In addition to the business session, the State Boys Talent Contest and State Public Speaking contest is scheduled for Thursday night, June 2. Parliamentary Procedure contest is scheduled for Friday night, and the selection of State FFA Sweetheart will climax FFA's activities.

Kaye Downing, local FFA Sweetheart, will represent Southwest District in the Sweetheart contest.

Saturday's session of the convention is devoted to the retiring addresses of State officers, awarding of scholarships by the four district colleges, and the awarding of Arkansas Farmer degrees to approximately 140 outstanding Future Farmers of Arkansas, among these will be Denver Dickinson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Denver Dickinson, and Tommy Montgomery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Montgomery.

Jim Caudle, Roy Allison, Jimmy Barentine, Frank Lemley, and Richard Lockard will represent Hope in the State Convention Band.

Mr. Burgess Garrett, local chapter advisor, will accompany the local members to the convention.

$44 Millions to Public Schools

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state contributed a record 4-1/2 million dollars—the maximum set by the 1959 Legislature—to public school funds in the current fiscal year.

This was reported by the state Revenue Department yesterday. The previous high of $43,701,472 set last year, was topped with transfer of $4,725,000 to the public school fund.

The schools will get no more money during this fiscal year, since contributions have reached the maximum.

In 1958-59, the last year before the three per cent sales tax took effect, $29,700,000 was allocated to the school fund.

500 TRAGEDY — Two persons were killed and 70 injured when a make-shift stand at the Indianapolis, Ind., Speedway collapsed just before the annual 500-mile classic got underway. Jim Rathman, a second-place winner three times, won the 41th running of the classic with a record breaking speed of 138.786 m.p.h.

Redistricting State to Bring a Battle

by JOHN R. STARR

Associated Press Staff Writer
Changing the boundaries of Arkansas' congressional districts to compensate for the loss of two representatives is expected to develop into a spirited battle in the 1961 Legislature.

"Unless some agreement is reached beforehand, redistricting could develop into the major controversy of the session," predicted one official.

Political figures refused to discuss the touchy question for the record. But they have been thinking about it since census estimates several years ago indicated Arkansas was losing population.

Redistricting is not as simple as drawing lines on a state map. Among non-personal factors to be considered are population, economic and geographic similarities in the districts and historical alignments of political policy.

But stronger than these in Arkansas, is the personal factor — the malleable fact that the state has five congressmen of long en-and high prestige in Congress. They just won't fit into four districts.

"It reduces to this," said one official, "Two of the six men we have in Washington today will be out of jobs. And the manner in which the state is redistricted could have a great effect on which stay and which go."

Each of the incumbent congressmen would like to see new district borders which leave undisturbed the major portion of his present district and voting strength. Essentially, this is what happened in 1951 when the state was redistricted for the first time since 1901.

Boyd Tackett's southwest Arkansas district was divided between Jim Trimble's Third District and Oren Harris' Fourth District. Tackett ran for governor, lost and dropped from the political scene.

Tackett's fallout will make any of the incumbents reluctant to follow his course. Each is expected to push vigorously for new Probers Told 200 U2 Flights Made By U.S.

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — A spokesman for the nation's space agency testified today that high-flying U2 planes have made more than 200 weather flights covering about 204,000 miles since 1956.

He said his agency did not know just where the planes flew until "after the fact."

"These flights have been conducted in the United States, western Europe, Turkey and Japan," Hugh L. Dryden, deputy administrator for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said.

Dryden, in testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, pictured the missions as "information-gathering for research work—not spying."

He explained that NASA, in doing its job of research on improving aircraft development and operations, arranges to put instruments on planes, military and commercial. He said it has "cooperated with foreign governments and airlines by lending instrumentation."

"Now the pattern of operation with the commercial airlines and with the military has been the same throughout," Dryden continued.

"We meet with the owners and operators of the airplanes, whether an airline or the military service, come to an agreement with them that our instruments can be

1960 Bobcat Yearbook Rated Good

A score of "A" meaning "Excellent," has been given the 1960 Bobcat published by Hope High School and printed by the Hurley Company, Camden.

This marks the fourth consecutive year the book has been scored by the National Scholastic Yearbook Association, Columbia, Missouri, but the first year to receive more than a B plus.

The book is scored generally as to cover, paper, printing, scope of coverage, completeness, sequence, proportion, pictorial, content, combined good, action and portraits; editorial, word coverage in heading, narration, captions; layout and design.

The judges commented: "Your 1960 book appears quite complete with good coverage and nice arrangement of material."

Sue Ann Smith and Carolyn Yarbrough were co-editors of the Bobcat. Sherrie Hankins was editorial editor; and business managers were Billie Wilkison and Suzanne Sommerville.

Charge Rep. Harris, Others Let Taxpayers Foot Bill for Resort, Night Club Trips

Washington (AP) — Dozens of expense account bills of House members have been altered or amended in recent years, the Knight newspapers said today.

In a copyrighted dispatch, reporters Don Oberdorfer and Walter Pincus said House records show that "congressmen spent tax dollars on trips to resort areas, on night clubbing and tipping aboard luxury liners."

The receipts supporting the expense account claims then were altered in some instances, the story said, to show different purposes for the expenditures.

It said "expense accounts of only a few members of the House are involved in the unusual expense bills. In those checked while the records were still public, alterations or amendments appeared on hotel bills of more than 20 present or former congressmen."

The story said the records in the House disbursing office "had long been public documents open to public inspection."

House officials threw a secrecy

ploak around the (records) after learning of press interest a few days ago. The door to the fund record room was locked and all access to the public sealed off."

The story said the practices "are concentrated in the expense accounts of House investigating committees — the very groups which have been busy scrutinizing everybody else. But nobody investigates the investigators."

It cited as an example bills of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in Honolulu to Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark.), in which the word food in parentheses was written in after separate charges marked "bar."

Harris is chairman of the Legislative Oversight subcommittee which recently investigated payola practices in the disc jockey business.

The story quoted Harris as commenting he does not have "the slightest idea" who made the food notations after the bar charges on the hotel bill.

"I don't approve of bar payments (being charged to the gov-

Revolution Is Haunting South Korea

By JAMES CARY

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—The specter of counterrevolution haunts the new government of South Korea.

So far there is no actual evidence of an organized plot to overthrow Adling President Huh Chung.

But there are strange stirrings. They probably were partly responsible for ex-President Syngman Rhee's sudden flight to Honolulu Sunday.

In the talk of antirevolution and counterrevolution, elements most commonly mentioned are: Rhee's now-discredited Liberal party; ex-Premier Lee Bum Suk's fascist-like "Blue Shirt" movement, now resurgent and renamed the National Independence League; a new reputedly leftist group, the Young Guardians of the Republic; some wealthy conservatives and perhaps some military figures.

The key to the situation is the provisional government's investigation into the rigging of the March 15 presidential election which triggered the April students' revolt that toppled Rhee.

So far the investigation has jailed nine members of Rhee's last, 11-man cabinet, a minister from a previous cabinet, two former presidents of the Korean Reconstruction Bank, one Bank of Korea governor and a vice governor, two former national police directors, the chief of the presidential palace police, the 13 members of the election planning committee, two former provincial governors, a former mayor of Seoul and Rhee's personal bodyguard.

The probe also prompted the resignation of Lt. Gen. Song Yohan, the army chief of staff, who took responsibility for the army's part in the fraudulent voting. Two other top military commanders also have resigned.

The investigation is biting much deeper into Korea's former rulers than seemed likely when the probe began. Undoubtedly it is causing those who feel they might be next to seek some way of eliminating the danger.

Rhee's name, before his departure, popped up repeatedly as a possible rallying point for those apprehensive of the investigation trend. At least one high-ranking army officer, a former premier, numerous Liberal party members and even some students conferred with the old man after he retired to private life.

Both the ultra rightist National Independence League and the leftist Young Guardians would like to see Huh's reform regime ousted and new elections called immediately, without waiting for passage of a new constitutional amendment setting up a premier-cabinet form of government responsible to the National Assembly.

Water Jobs for Arkansas Approved

WASHINGTON (AP)—A nine-foot channel project for the Ouachita River in Arkansas and Louisiana is included in a $1,547,016, 352 rivers and harbors authorization bill approved by the Senate Public Works Committee.

The measure, which was passed by the House last year with total authorizations of $658,310,500, authorizes $43,500,000 for channel work on the Ouachita and Black Rivers.

Actual appropriations for the various projects would be made later.

Other Arkansas projects in the measure include $179,000,000 for Arkansas River Basin work, $50,000,000 for work on the lower Mississippi River and these flood control projects: White River Basin, $50,000,000; Manatee Bayou $668,400; McKinney Bayou $346,400; Village Creek, White River and Mayberry Levee Districts, $1,320,000; Garland City bank protection $1,500,000.

The Arkansas and Mississippi projects are continuing jobs for which authorizations have been made previously.

Mrs. George Edward Fritz Honored

Mrs. George Edward Fritz, a member of the Echols School faculty at Ft. Smith this past term, was honored with several post wedding courtesies this past weekend. Mrs. Fritz was the former Miss Mary Jewelle Herring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hansel Herring of Prescott, until her wedding May 14.

Members of the Echols staff honored Mrs. Fritz with a breakfast and linen shower in the teachers lounge on Friday. On Thursday her first grade class and the home room mothers held a picnic in her honor.

Both the girls and the boys in the class presented her with a gift of silver.

The Echols Parent Teachers Association gave her special recognition at the May P. T. A. session and presented her with a gift of silver.

On Wednesday evening, May 25 Mrs. Fritz was filed at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Albert Carroll in the home of Mrs. Doris Day.

Receiving with the hostess and honoree were the bride-grooms mother and sister, Mrs. Albert Fritz and Miss Nancy Fritz. Prize games were played and brides being won by the winners.

Punch, cookies, mints and nuts were served from a table covered with a lace cloth with a center arrangement of summer blossoms.

About thirty guests shared the occasions with the honoree.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Allen and Cindy of Searcy were Friday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jones.

Mrs. T. E. Logan is the guest this week of her son, Tom Logan, and family in Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Edward Fritz of North Little Rock were the weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hansel Herring.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hines, Miss June Hines and Billy Hines spent the weekend in Tyler, Tex., with Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Agness and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rooks.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. McKee Jr., Mr. and Mrs. H. H. McKenzie, Mrs. John Pittman, Mrs. Frank Gilbert and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bemis attended funeral services for Allan Johnston in Shreveport La., on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Bemis remained for a longer stay with Mrs. Johnston.

Clean-Up Week At City Park

This is clean-up week at City Park, Tuesday through Friday. We are asking everyone to come out in your spare time and help make the park a beautiful place.

Roscoe Smith, Supervisor of Recreation.

Youth Center Needs Help

The Negro Youth Center at City Park is nearing completion. Lights have been installed and painting is now in progress, yet there is still much work to be done — so far, there has been very little co-operation by local citizens — most of the work being done by a very few.

Work is being done both day and evenings and if you'd like to help out for an hour or so, come on out — this is a community project — Geo. "Boots" Smith, chairman Youth Foundation.

Methodist Members Show Gain

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The Little Rock Methodist Conference gained 5,025 persons in the past conference year, a report to an annual meeting showed today.

The report said the Little Rock Conference now has 83,083 persons on church rolls and another 4,323 on preparatory rolls.

Dr. W. Neil Hart, superintendent of the Camden District and chairman of district superintendents, also reported that property evaluation in the conference now totals 22 1/2 million dollars.

During the past conference year, $4,150,453 was raised for all purposes.

Three new churches were added: St. Paul's at El Dorado, St. Mark's at Camden and Trinity at Warren.

In other action at today's opening session of the conference's meeting, the Rev. James E. Major of Little Rock was elected conference secretary for 1960-64. Fred Gant of Texarkana was elected statistician for the same period.

Dr. Pierce Harris, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Atlanta, addressed a Youth Rally of the conference last night. The minister, who will deliver six sermons during the conference, urged youth Methodists to seek a power greater than the world can offer. Harris told his audience of 1,000 this is the only way to be successful in all of life.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Holloway

The DeAnn Methodist Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding ceremony on Friday evening, May 20, when Miss Sandra Katherine Burke became the bride of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin D. Burke of DeAnn and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cecil Holloway of Curtis.

Rev. D. L. McCauley, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Matching Pedestal baskets of white gladioli, mums and carnations flanked on either side by seven-branched candelabra holding burning white tapers formed the background for the greenery. Arrangements of greenery and white candles decorated each side of the sanctuary.

Miss Sheila Ann Mann of Arkadelphia, cousin of the bride, played the traditional wedding march and the preceremony selections. Miss Martha Grimes of Prescott sang "Because," "I Love You Truly," and "The Lord's Prayer." The bride given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor-length gown of white beaded satin and lace, designed with a princess effect, sweetheart neckline, and long fitted sleeves tapered to petal points over the hands and buttoned with tiny pearl buttons. The pelon lined skirt billowed in gathers from each side and extended to a V in the back. Her veil of pure silk illusion fell in tiers from a crown of lace incrusting in pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white bible on which rested a white orchid.

Miss Peggy Samuel, cousin of the bride, and maid of honor, wore an apricot cotton dress with a full skirt and low neckline, with tiny bows. Similar dresses of mint green cotton were worn by the bridesmaids, Misses Linda Talton, of Minden, La., cousin of the bride, Patsy Willet of DeAnn, Charleadena Holloway of Curtis, sister of the bridegroom, Penny Burke, sister of the bride was Junior bridesmaid. Attendants were hats with brims of white nylon tulle, sprinkled with tiny flowers of apricot and mint green. Each carried a bouquet of tiny roses, knotted with bows of mint green satin ribbon.

Flower girls were little Miss Cosette Burke, sister of the bride and Patsy Craig, niece of the groom, both wearing white organza with baskets of rose petals. Bruce Burke, cousin of the bride was ringbearer.

Candles were lighted by Michael Samuel and Billy Faulkner, cousins of the bride. Ushers were Ronnie Burke, brother of the bride, and Dick Arnold. Best man was Johnny Mack Holloway, of Curtis, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Burke mother of the bride wore a beige lace dress with bone accessories, and Mrs. Holloway, mother of the groom wore a blue lace dress with blue accessories. Each wore a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the brides parents. The dining table was laid with a white cloth over satin. The central decoration was a crystal bowl filled with white roses, with crystal candelabra holding white candles on each side. A beautiful white wedding cake, decorated with white and pink rose buds topped with a miniature bride and groom completed the setting. Mrs. Henry Burke and Mrs. Jewel Burke, aunts of the bride served punch and small embossed wedding cakes. Flowers were placed at vantage points throughout the home. Miss Faye Willis of Hope presided at the white satin brides book. Guests were received at the door by Mrs. Jimmy Arnold.

The brides travel ensemble was coffee brocade Irish linen with bone accessories. She pinned to her dress the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will make their home in Little Rock where the groom is employed with the Allis Chalmers, Co.

Tidelands Issue Far From Settled

WASHINGTON (AP)—The question of submerged lands in the Gulf of Mexico, which has bedeviled the federal government and Gulf states for 20 years, appeared far from settled today despite a new Supreme Court decision Tuesday.

There almost certainly will be more years of litigation and perhaps further legislation by Congress.

What the court decided was the seaward distance in which each state could claim the mineral rights.

It decided that Texas and Florida boundaries extend three marine leagues from the ordinary low water mark, or about 10 1/2 miles. But the boundaries of Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama extend only three geographic, or nautical, miles, or about 3.45 land miles.

The decision was greeted with joy by Texas and Florida officials. Texas has some leased oil areas in the Gulf. No oil has been discovered yet off Florida, but test drillings are being made.

Congressmen and state officials of the other three states used such words as "incredible," "fantastic" and "discriminatory."

They pledged to ask the court to reconsider the case, and congressmen talked of new legislation next year to upset the decision.

The courts still must decide just how the newly defined areas are to be measured.

The question of who owns the submerged lands was settled in 1954, when the Supreme Court upheld the Submerged Lands Act of 1953. That law gave the jurisdiction to the states involved instead of the federal government. That law said the states should have their historic seaward boundaries union, and this was the crux of the argument.

Would Require Competitive Bids

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Garland Rep. Eugene (Bud) Canada says he will propose a bill to require county judges to make purchases through competitive bidding such as now is required for state and municipal buying.

Canada said he would introduce the bill in the 1961 Legislature. To do so he must win re-election. He has two opponents.

A Garland County jury which recently indicted suspended County Judge H. C. Warren and several other persons was critical of purchasing practices in the county.

Urges Passage of Amendment 51

CROSSETT, Ark. (AP)—Passage of Amendment 51, a proposal to ease financial restrictions on cities, was urged yesterday at a meeting of about 150 south Arkansas city officials and state legislators.

Amendment 51 will be voted on in November. It would remove a five-mill limit on bonded indebtedness for capital improvements, raise from five to 10 mills the maximum levy for general operations and eliminate a $5,000 ceiling on salaries for city officials.

Joseph E. Pryor, chairman of the Physical Science Department. The change is effective Monday.

Oriole Hurlers Murdering Rest of Loop

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

You can call 'em the Baby Birds or the Kiddle Korps, but what these Baltimore Oriole pitchers are doing to rest of the American League these days is spelled m-u-r-d-e-r.

The five kid hurlers—Steve Barber, Chuck Estrada, Jack Fisher, Milt Pappas and Jerry Walker—all barely old enough to vote, have packed away 16 of the front-flyin' Birds' 25 victories.

Walker, the last to become a winner, nailed his first decision with a 3-2 victory over the New York Yankees Tuesday night. The 21-year-old right-hander had a no-hitter for six innings, then gave way for ninth-inning relief by Barber, also 21.

It was the fifth victory in six games for the Orioles and it gave them a twosome edge over Cleveland. Chicago's defending champion White Sox shook their slump and beat the second-place Indians 6-4.

Kansas City spilled Detroit 2-1 behind the three-hit pitching of Dick Hall. Boston escaped the cellar while plunking Washington in, defeating the Senators 5-1.

In the National League, Pittsburgh defeated Cincinnati 4-3 in 11 innings and took a 1½-game lead over second-place San Francisco, beaten 9-1 by Chicago's Cubs. Philadelphia rapped Milwaukee 12-7. Los Angeles whipped St. Louis 8-3.

The Orioles beat left-hander Whitey Ford (2-3) for the first time in four decisions going back to last September, he clinching run came off reliever Tyne Duren, however, in the eighth inning on three walks and a sacrifice fly by Clint Courtney. Duren, now has given up a dozen walks and 10 runs in his last five appearances, covering just four innings.

The White Sox broke their losing string at four and reclaimed

Writers Irk Owner of Boston Team

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP)—Boston Red Sox owner Tom Yawkey is so fed up with the treatment his team is getting from local sports writers he has dropped a hint he may move the team from Boston.

But multimillionaire Yawkey in a rare news conference, said he will go along with Billy Jurges as manager of the seventh-place team. Later he qualified his remarks about moving the club.

He made a surprise appearance in the press room atop Fenway Park just before Tuesday night's Boston-Washington game. Yawkey dropped several hints he may move the team if the writers don't quit riding the club. He chided the reporters gently at first, then not so gently.

"How many of you guys think you're qualified to manage a ball club?" he demanded.

He fixed one reporter with a stare.

"Do you?"

"No, I don't think I'm qualified," the reporter answered.

"You're damn right you're not," Yawkey snapped.

"Sometimes it goes beyond the bounds of human dignity and reason," he said. "I don't put up with it. I don't have to. Just remember I've got the last word. I always have the last word. I've got an ace in the hole. And I'll use it if I have to. There's an innuendo there I think you all understand."

Later, however, Yawkey said he has no present plans to move or sell the club.

"That's for the future to decide," he said.

Earlier, he and general manager

Two Players Expelled at University

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—

The University of Arkansas Disciplinary Committee today expelled football players Elbert (Sonny) Holmes of Forrest City and Jimmy Dale Sellers of Conway.

The committee suspended Donald E. McFall of Pocahontas, who has no athletic affiliations, from attendance at the fall semester.

The committee did not disclose why action was taken against the three. The committee never gives reasons in disciplinary actions.

Holmes ran as a No. 2 quarter-back last season. He would have been a junior next fall.

Sellers, a 235-pound tackle, would have been a junior in class work but a sophomore in football eligibility.

Holmes and Sellers are out of school indefinitely unless they seek reinstatement. Any application would have to be passed on by the Disciplinary Committee.

Holmes figured in a recruiting case which cost University of Mississippi a $1,000 fine in 1958.

An Ole Miss alumnus allegedly gave Holmes presents as an inducement for him to attend the Mississippi school.

The fine was levied against Ole Miss on ground of recruitment which violated Southeast Conference regulations.

Holmes did not enroll at Mississippi.

Last week the Disciplinary Committee suspended halfback Paul Dudley of Sallisaw, Okla., who had been voted the football squad's most improved player.

Cubs Slamming Supposedly Fine Pitching

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

What's with the San Francisco Giants? Don't they know they're back home, where all that good pitching is supposed to pay off?

They won 14 of their first 18 games at spanking new Candlestick Park. But now the Chicago Cubs have taken two of three there, knocking out three of the Giants top pitchers and dropping them 1½ games behind the National League-leading Pittsburgh Pirates.

After jarring the Giants out of a share of the lead with a split in a Memorial Day doubleheader, the Cubs won 9-1 Tuesday night against southpaw Johnny Antonelli. The Pirates defeated Cincinnati 4-3 in 11 innings at Pittsburgh.

Last place Philadelphia cut loose for six runs in the eighth inning and whipped Milwaukee 12-7. Los Angeles rapped St. Louis 8-3.

In the American League, Baltimore gained a two-game lead by beating New York 3-2 while second place Cleveland lost 6-4 at Chicago. Kansas City defeated Detroit 2-1 on the three-hit pitching of ex-Pirate Dick Hall. Boston defeated Washington 5-1.

The Cubs, responsible for three of the Giants' seven defeats at spacious Candlestick, got this one on a pair of doubles by Jerry Kindall, god for three runs, and homers by Ernie Banks and Bob Will. Banks socked his 10th in the first inning off Antonelli. He also had a triple and double.

Glen Hobbie (4-6) was the winner, losing a shutout when he walked Willie McCovey and hit Orlando Cepeda ahead of a pair of infield outs in the second inning.

Roberto Clemente, regaining the NL bat lead at .353, singled with the bases loaded in the 11th for the Pirates. It was Pittsburgh's fourth straight victory and 14th in the last 19 games. Elroy Face (4-3) won his fourth in a row with two innings of shut-out relief, leaving the bases loaded in the 10th and 11th.

Two walks and a hint single by Dick Groat, who had five of the Bucs' 13 hits, set up Cal McLish (2-4) for the loss. McLish was the sixth of eight Redleg pitchers.

The Phils tagged the loss on Lew Burdette (3-2), working in relief, while handing Milwaukee a fourth straight defeat. Bobby Del Greco and Pancho Herrera each drove in three runs for Philadelphia. Rookie Chris Short (2-0) won it in relief.

A tie-breaking grand slam home run by Norm Sherry, his first in a Memorial Day doubleheader, the Cubs won 9-1 Tuesday night against southpaw Johnny Antonelli. The Pirates defeated Cincinnati 4-3 in 11 innings at Pittsburgh.

Glen Hobbie (4-6) was the winner, losing a shutout when he walked Willie McCovey and hit Orlando Cepeda ahead of a pair of infield outs in the second inning.

Roberto Clemente, regaining the NL bat lead at .353, singled with the bases loaded in the 11th for the Pirates. It was Pittsburgh's fourth straight victory and 14th in the last 19 games. Elroy Face (4-3) won his fourth in a row with two innings of shut-out relief, leaving the bases loaded in the 10th and 11th.

Two walks and a hint single by Dick Groat, who had five of the Bucs' 13 hits, set up Cal McLish (2-4) for the loss. McLish was the sixth of eight Redleg pitchers.

The Phils tagged the loss on Lew Burdette (3-2), working in relief, while handing Milwaukee a fourth straight defeat. Bobby Del Greco and Pancho Herrera each drove in three runs for Philadelphia. Rookie Chris Short (2-0) won it in relief.

A tie-breaking grand slam home run by Norm Sherry, his first in a Memorial Day doubleheader, the Cubs won 9-1 Tuesday night against southpaw Johnny Antonelli. The Pirates defeated Cincinnati 4-3 in 11 innings at Pittsburgh.

After jarring the Giants out of a share of the lead with a split in a Memorial Day doubleheader, the Cubs won 9-1 Tuesday night against southpaw Johnny Antonelli. The Pirates defeated Cincinnati 4-3 in 11 innings at Pittsburgh.

Last place Philadelphia cut loose for six runs in the eighth inning and whipped Milwaukee 12-7. Los Angeles rapped St. Louis 8-3.

In the American League, Baltimore gained a two-game lead by beating New York 3-2 while second place Cleveland lost 6-4 at Chicago. Kansas City defeated Detroit 2-1 on the three-hit pitching of ex-Pirate Dick Hall. Boston defeated Washington 5-1.

The Cubs, responsible for three of the Giants' seven defeats at spacious Candlestick, got this one on a pair of doubles by Jerry Kindall, god for three runs, and homers by Ernie Banks and Bob Will. Banks socked his 10th in the first inning off Antonelli. He also had a triple and double.

third place from New York. 3½ games behind Baltimore. A two-run homer by Gene Freese tied it 2-2 in the fourth off loser Gary Bell (5-3) and Al Smith's solo homer triggered a winning three-run sixth. Billy Pierce (4-2) was the winner, with 2 1-3 innings of shutout relief by Russ Kemmerer. Jim Piersall, fined $250 by AL President Joe Cronin for his memorial Day ruckus, homered for the Indians.

Kansas City swept the three-game series with Detroit for a five-game streak although also managing just three hits. Southpaw Pete Burnside (2-1) lost it, giving up two hits in his seven innings. Andy Carey homered for the A's first run. In the sixth, they got the winner in the seventh on a walk, a sacrifice and a pair of infield outs. Hall, a Pittsburgh castoff, had a two-hit shutout until Sandy Amoros hit a pinch home run in the eighth.

Boston Manager Billy Jurges, received a vote of confidence from club owner Tom Yawkey a few minutes before game time and the Red Sox then chipped in with their fourth victory in 18 games, winning two in a row for the first time in that span. Tom Brewer (4-4) won it with a four-hitter and a squeeze bunt that beat Bill Fischer (9-2) in the second inning.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 50

BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the Sixty-Second General Assembly of the State of Arkansas, and by the Senate, a majority of all members elected to each House agreeing thereto:

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon, at such an election, adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to-wit:

SECTION 1. The annual salaries of the constitutional officers of this State shall be as fixed by law, but shall not exceed the following: The Governor, the sum of $20,000.00; the Lieutenant Governor, the sum of $5,000.00; the Secretary of State, the sum of $10,000.00; the Treasurer of State, the sum of $10,000.00; the Auditor of State, the sum of $10,000.00; the Attorney General, the sum of $12,000.00; and the Commissioner of State Lands, the sum of $10,000.00.

SECTION 2. The annual salaries or compensation of all elected county officials and their deputy hire allowances shall be as fixed by law, provided, that no such salary or compensation shall be in excess of $10,000.00 per annum.

SECTION 3. The annual salaries of all elected municipal officials shall be prescribed by the elected government body of such municipality, but no such salary shall be in excess of $10,000.00 per annum. Provided, that the salaries of municipal judges shall be established in the manner prescribed by Amendment No. 43 to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas.

SECTION 4. The annual salaries or compensation of all county and municipal officials, and their deputy hire allowances, shall be as fixed and remain the same as provided by law upon the effective date of this Amendment until the same shall be changed in the manner authorized herein.

SECTION 5. The salaries of state constitutional officers; elected county officials and elected municipal officials shall not be reduced or diminished during the term for which any such official shall be elected.

SECTION 6. Nothing contained herein shall limit or restrict the right of the people to establish the salaries of county and municipal officials by initiative act as authorized in Amendment 7 to the Constitution.

SECTION 7. All laws and parts of laws and all constitutional provisions in conflict herewith are, to the extent of such conflict, hereby repealed.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 51

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Arkansas, and by the House of Representatives, a majority of all members elected to each House agreeing thereto:

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon, at such an election, adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to-wit:

SECTION 1. In addition to other powers granted by constitutional or statutory authority, cities of the first and second class may issue, by and with consent of a majority of the qualified electors of said municipality voting on the question at an election held for the purpose, bonds in sums and for the purposes approved by such majority at such election as follows:

For the payment of any indebtedness existing at the time of the adoption of this amendment; for the purchase of rights of way for construction of public streets, alleys, boulevards, and expressways, within the corporate limits of such municipality for the construction of widening or straightening of streets, alleys, boulevards, expressways, and parking facilities, within the corporate limits of such municipality; for the purchase, development and improvement of public parks, airports, flying fields, and recreational facilities located either within or without the corporate limits of such municipality; for the construction of sewers and comfort stations; for the purchase of fire alarm systems; for the purchase of street and sewer cleaning equipment and apparatus; for the purchase of sites for, construction of, and equipment of city halls, auditoriums, court houses, prisons, libraries, hospitals, clinics, public abattoirs, incinerators or garbage disposal or sewage treatment plants; for building for the housing of street, police or fire fighting apparatus and equipment; for the construction of viaducts and bridges; for the purpose of purchasing, extending, improving, enlarging, building, or construction of water works or light plants, and distribution systems therefor; and for the purchase of sites for, improving or equipping harbor and river terminal facilities; and for the acquisition, development and construction of other municipal or public facilities and improvements. For the purchase, development and improvement of airports, waterworks, sewage disposal

Said bonds shall be serial, maturing annually after three years from date of issue, and shall be paid off as they mature, and no bonds issued under the authority of this amendment shall be issued for a longer period than forty years.

It shall be the duty of the mayor and city council or other governing body established by law, to exercise supervision over the sale of any bonds, which may be voted by the people at an election held for that purpose and they shall expend economically the funds so provided for which they were voted.

Said election shall be held at such times as the city council may designate by ordinance, which ordinance shall specifically state the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, and if for more than one purpose, provisions shall be made in said ordinance for balloting on each separate purpose; which ordinance shall state the sum total of the issue, the dates of maturity thereof and shall fix the date of election so that it shall not occur earlier than thirty days after the passage of said ordinance. Said election shall be held and conducted, and the vote thereof canvassed, and the result thereof declared under the law and in the manner now or hereafter provided for municipal elections, so far as the same may be applicable, except as herein otherwise provided. Notice of said election shall be given by the mayor by advertisement weekly for at least four times, in some newspaper published in said municipality and having a bona fide circulation therein; the last publication to be not less than ten days prior to the date of said election. Qualified voters of said municipality only shall have a right to pal officials by initiative act as authorized in Amendment 7 to the Constitution.

SECTION 7. All laws and parts of laws and all constitutional provisions in conflict herewith are, to the extent of such conflict, hereby repealed.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Arkansas, and by the House of Representatives, a majority of all members elected to each House agreeing thereto:

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon, at such an election, adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to-wit:

SECTION 1. Intelligence and virtue being the safeguards of liberty and bulwark of a free and good government, it is hereby declared to be the public policy that Arkansas shall ever provide financial aid whereby all residents of this State between the ages of six and eighteen years may, as desired by them or their parents or guardians, receive gratuitous instruction; and, that the manner of administering such aid can best be determined at the local level.

SECTION 2. Financial aid to carry out the aforesaid declared policy of the people of this State shall be raised at both the State and local levels through taxation now or hereafter authorized by law. Financial aid at the State level shall be provided in such amounts, and distributed to school districts under such formula, or formulas, as the General Assembly shall, from time to time, determine; and, financial aid at the local level shall be provided in such amounts as shall from time to time be determined by the qualified electors of the respective school districts.

SECTION 3. The qualified electors of each school district shall have the right to determine by their vote at a special election called for the purpose, the manner of applying the financial aid available for the instruction of residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years, and such instruction may be provided either: (a) through a system of free public schools, whereof the district will provide the physical plant, employ instructors, and do all things necessary to maintain a general, suitable and efficient system of free schools to be operated by the district; or (b) through student education financial aid whereof the district will apply all available funds for the equal benefit of all such residents for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

SECTION 4. Subject to such limitations as may be imposed by law, exclusive jurisdiction for the government of each school district shall be vested in a board of directors.

SECTION 5. There is hereby levied and there shall be collected an annual per capita tax of one dollar from each resident of this State over the age of twenty-one years, and the proceeds thereof shall be used for educational purposes in such manner as is now or as hereafter may be provided by law.

SECTION 6. Not less than fifteen days next preceding each annual school election, the board of directors of each school district shall prepare, approve and make public a proposed budget of expenditures in which there shall be set forth the amount of funds determined by the board as being necessary to provide, during the next following fiscal year, gratuitous instruction for residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years. The proposed budget shall set forth the estimated amounts, respectively, of funds necessary: (a) to meet the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds; (b) to meet its other contractual obligations; (c) to pay insurance premiums on, and cost of maintenance or custodial care of, buildings and other property owned by the district; and (d), in such detail as the board shall determine, the estimated amount of funds required for other educational purposes. From the total of the aforementioned requirements for the fiscal year shall be deducted the estimated amount of funds to be available to the district from State aid and from all other sources other than the local property tax, and the remainder as so determined shall be designated and known as the budget deficit. Based upon the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the territorial bounds of the district for the then current year, the board of directors shall determine the rate of tax levy necessary to provide, when applied to the amount of said assessed valuation, funds of sufficient amount to meet the aforesaid budget deficit; and the rate of tax levy as so determined shall be submitted for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors of the district at the next following annual school election. Whenever, at any annual school election, a majority of the qualified electors of the district voting on the proposition shall approve the rate of tax levy proposed by the board of directors, then taxes shall be collected at the rate so approved. In the event the rate shall not be approved at any such election, then taxes shall be collected at the rate of thirty (30) mills on each dollar of assessed valuation, or at the rate approved at the next preceding annual school election, whichever rate shall be the lower figure. Provided, that no rate of tax levy shall ever be fixed by the governing body of such cities, and the amounts of such salaries shall not be limited by any existing Constitutional provision.

SECTION 5. This amendment shall be in force upon its adoption, and shall not require legislative action to put it into force and effect.

All provisions of this amendment shall be treated as mandatory, and all provisions of the Constitution, or amendments thereto, in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved: March 16, 1959.

Firm Post Summit Policy Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon today called for a post-summit policy of "firmness without belligerence" toward the Communists rather than a war of words he said might lead to nuclear war.

Nixon's statement, the keynote theme in officially opening a conference of ministers of the eight-nation Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter pledged full U.S. support for SEATO in its quest for peace and stability in the Far East.

"The United States is determined to continue to carry out its responsibilities in concert with the other members," Herter said in an address.

The foreign ministers of the other three big Western SEATO MEMBERS—United States, Britain and France — joined in Herter's assurance.

State Tax Take Heavy in May

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—May was a good tax month in Arkansas. Total revenues showed no increase of $1,313,410 over May of last year with all the major taxing categories having healthy advances over 1959.

Revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney reported today.

The total for May was $17,322,473 with $13,628,203 coming from general revenues and $3,694,270 from special revenues.

Sales tax collections increased $398,084 to $4,774,708. Income tax revenue was up $532,005 to $7,174,719 and the gasoline tax advanced $276,205 to $3,206,235.

May collections gave the state a total of $18,238,691 for the first eleven months of the fiscal year, compared to $13,065,041 for the same period last year, an increase of nearly 7 1/2 million dollars.

Mobile, first permanent white settlement in Alabama, was founded by the French in 1702.

To sub-contractors and non-bidders are available by depositing $25.00 per set with refund at the rate of $10.00 per set upon return of documents within five (5) days from receipt of bids.

7. No bids may be withdrawn after the scheduled closing time for receipt of bids.

8. All bidders must comply with the requirements of the Contractors Licensing Law of the State of Arkansas.

MORTY MEEKLE

THE STORY OF MARTHA WAYNE

HARD PURSUED

BY NORMAN A. FOX

Chapter 15

THE STORY: Ry Buckner and Pru Lape fight off Sam Tull, one of Spence Rigby's hard cases. Ry and Pru are in a deserted ranch house. Between shots, Buckner hears a wagon approaching.

Pru came back into the room. "A covered wagon," she reported. "Two people on the seat. There's a rider alongside the horse, leading two saddle horses. Ours, I think, caught up somewhere."

"Good!" he said. He put on his hat. He looked through the window just in time to see Tull rise from behind the trough and start running toward the barn. Tull, he thought the house cut off his view, and Dorcas heard the shooting. He'd been able to guess at the size of the force arriving. Now, with Tull up and running, the edge was Buckner's, and he went through the window and after Tull. The man heard the beat of boots behind him, for he turned and threw a shot. Buckner felt the air lash of it. He felt behind the watering trough, on the opposite side from where Tull had hidden. He fired, but Tull got into the barn.

The man appeared almost instantly, mounted and at a gallop, clinging to one side of his horse. Buckner saw him firing under the neck. The bullets went wide, but they kept Buckner pinned down. Then Tull rounded the barn.

Buckner reared up. He ran forward and reached the road and got a glimpse of Tull spurring hard, but the distance was now too great for six-shooter use. He turned. Roaring up came the covered wagon, a man at the lines, a younger man beside him. Planking the wagon was Boxed J's Billy Lape, and he was leading the two horses that had bolted with the first gunfire.

Lape said, astonished, "Ry Buckner! Didn't figure to find you here."

"Hello, Billy," Buckner said. "Believe me, man, I'm glad to see you."

Pru came from the house. She stood on the porch, and she put her hand to one of the supports to steady herself.

Buckner looked at the wagon and its riders. On the canvas of the side nearest him, words had been smeared with axle grease: "JUDGE NOT. THAT YE BE NOT JUDGED." The man at the lines was a preacher if he'd ever seen one, a lanky scarecrow dressed in rusty black. The younger man looked like the older with 30 years sheared away. Buckner nodded at them. "I don't believe I know you," he said.

"Jones," the older man said. "The Rev. Gilson Jones. This is my son Tobias."

Lape said to Pru, "Dorcas asked me to find him and head him here, him and his boy. The reverend is a rover, now to these parts. He didn't know the way to the Brewster place, so I came along. A couple miles back, we found these horses strayed. I recognized one as yours, miss. The other from Jake Hollis's stable. We were fetching them along, holding to an easy gait, till we heard gunshots. Then we came at a gallop. Wasn't that Sam Tull just rode off?"

"A private fight," Buckner said, thinking with very humor that it had been three men of peace who had saved him, a preacher, his son, and a prayer-meeting cowpoke. "Trouble was, Pru might have got killed."

Lape looked around. "Dorcas said she'd meet the reverend here."

"She hasn't come yet," Pru said.

Lape shoved back his hat and scratched his head. "I should be home at Boxed J. The reverend can't wait long, either. He has promised to conduct prayers with one of the west-end ranch families this evening."

Buckner walked to his horse and took the reins from Lape. "I'm obliged, Billy," he said. "I'll be getting along."

He had walked the mount no more than a hundred feet when he heard Pru call after him. He turned and saw her come running from the porch. He waited till she reached his stirrup.

"Ry," she asked, "where are you going?"

"Riding," he said. "You've got everybody here who's needed for a wedding party except the bride and groom. But Duke isn't going to show up at any place as open as this without having a look first. Not if his old friend Ry had heard the thunder, too, and Buckner is in sight. Likely he thought the house cut off his view, and Dorcas heard the shooting. He'd been able to guess at the size of the force arriving. Now, with Tull up and running, the edge was Buckner's, and he went through the window and after Tull. The man heard the beat of boots behind him, for he turned and threw a shot. Buckner felt the air lash of it. He felt behind the watering trough, on the opposite side from where Tull had hidden. Amendment 52 Backed by Johnson

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Proposed constitutional amendment 52 has the unqualified support of Associate Justice Jim Johnson of the Arkansas Supreme Court.

Johnson yesterday called the proposal "the only salvation of tax-supported education in Arkansas."

The amendment, sponsored in the 1950 Legislature by Gov. Orval E. Faubus, has been attacked vigorously by Faubus' four Democratic opponents for governor. It would permit local option abolition of public schools faced with integration.

Faubus refused to say positively he would vote for the proposal when asked about it on a television program last Friday night. "The main reason I'm for Amendment 52 because I'm for segregation," Johnson said. "It's ridiculous to say you're against this amendment and yet for segregation."

Johnson, a long-time segregationist leader, promised to "take the stump to tell the people the truth about this amendment before I'll see he race mixers kill it with slogans and insinuations." Joe C. Hardin of Grady, Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, H. E. Williams of Walnut Ridge and Hal Millsap Jr. of Siloam Springs all have assailed the amendment as part of their campaigns against Faubus' fourth term bid.

Opponents of the amendment term it a potential destroyer of the public school system. In addition to its anti-integration language, the amendment would alter school tax structures in a manner schoolmen say would make it difficult to assure adequate operating funds in any school district.

The language of the amendment is similar to some sections of a proposed amendment Johnson sponsored in 1958. More than 80,000 signatures to place the measure on the 1958 ballot were obtained, but the Arkansas Supreme Court ruled out the proposal on a technicality.

Johnson termed Amendment 52 a "sound, workable piece of legislation and one of the few that will stand the test of a United States Supreme Court review."

Faubus Not to Attend Convention

MARION, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said he would not attend the Democratic National Convention which starts in Los Angeles July 11.

Faubus has been named to head the Arkansas convention delegation.

Faubus indicated he feels he will be too busy campaigning for a fourth term to take time to go to Los Angeles.

"I haven't decided definitely yet, but I imagine I won't attend," Faubus told a newsmen here.

The governor stopped off at the Crittenden County Courthouse for a talk with Sheriff Cecil. Goodwin about a government matter. He was en route back to Little Rock from a Memphis speaking engagement.

Asked how he thought the gubernatorial campaign was going Faubus said, "I'm not worried." Then he added, "And that's because I'm not afraid to lose an election."

Faubus said he plans to start formal campaign June 15. "But I haven't decided on a definite date on that either," he said.

Ike Leaves June 12 on Tour of East

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower will leave June 12 on his Far Eastern tour to Japan, Korea, the Philippines, Formosa and Okinawa.

Announcing this today, the White House said that on the way the President also will visit this country's newest states, Alaska and Hawaii.

Eisenhower will travel aboard his jet airliner, but may transfer to the U.S. cruiser St. Paul for the trip from Manila to Taipei, the capital of Formosa.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said he would be unable to announce for a few days whether Mrs. Eisenhower will accompany the President.

The First Lady had been planning to make the trip when it included a 10-day visit to the Soviet Union, but Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev withdrew his invitation.

The White House announced several weeks ago that Eisenhower would go to Japan and Korea. Addition of the Philippines, Formosa and Okinawa confirms unofficial reports earlier this week that the President had decided to accept the invitations of those governments as a result of cancellation of the Soviet tour.

Scattered Arrests in Turkey

By WEBB MCKINLEY

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — The revolutionary government moved today to stamp out political activity in Turkey with scattered arrests.

The roundup followed the suicide of Nuriyik Gedik, former interior minister who as director of police was one of the most hated members of ousted premier Adnan Menderes' regime.

The arrests were believed directed against attempts to stir Menderes' old Democratic party back to life following last Friday's military coup.

After its first formal meeting Monday, the Provisional Cabinet announced it was banning "for the time being all party activities with the aim of preventing all discussions and struggles between brothers which might create angry incidents."

There were unconfirmed reports that some were hoping to organize an attempt to free Menderes.

Despite the arrests, Turkey was returning to normal life. Gedik early Monday eluded a guard and plunged through a win-

Premier Menderes also was reported in a highly emotional state after his arrest Friday.

Menderes, former President Celal Bayar and 100 or so officials of their regime were to be transferred by air from the war college to Yessli, Ada, an isolated Turkish naval base island 225 miles northwest of Ankara in the Sea of Marmara.

Purpose of the transfer is to minimize chances of demonstrations for or against Menderes.

Foreign governments were lining up in support of the revolutionary government by extending diplomatic recognition. The United States, Britain, Nationalist China, Pakistan and South Korea were among the first to give such recognition.

Promptly Rescued

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Diana Tatro, 33, of Santa Cruz, received prompt rescue treatment Tuesday night when her car was struck by another. Her auto was knocked into a fire alarm box.

Firemen pried her out of the wreckage and took her to a hospital for treatment of cuts and possible concussion.
